Favorable Report For Five-Year Refund

Good News For Hawaii

WASHINGTON, March 28. ATKINSON, Honolulu: Committee voted report revenue bill favorable five-year term.

KUHIO.

Governor Atkinson gave out the above cablegram this morning. The message conveys the following information:

The Committee on Territories of the House of Representatives has voted to report on the Hawaii Federal revenue 75 per cent. refund bill, favoring the refund for a term of five years.

Governor Atkinson will cable congratulations to Delegate to Congress Kuhlmann.

President G. W. Smith, of the Merchants' Association, one of Hawaii's delegates to Washington to urge the passage of the bill, said this afternoon:

"We have every reason to be satisfied. I think a great deal has been accomplished, and much credit is due Delegate Kuhlmann and Mr. McClellan. The business men's delegation worked hard, but I think great credit is due our Delegate to Congress."

"There is to be a meeting of the directors of the Merchants' Association on the new steamship matter and I presume this matter of the good news from Washington will come up. There is but one thing for us to do and that is to express our great satisfaction in regard to the House Committee's report. At the end of the five-year term we can ask for further refund."

TELL-TALE SHIRT OF JOHNSON IS IDENTIFIED

At the afternoon session of Judge Robinson's Court Mrs. Wharton continued her narrative relating to the Johnson case. She gave an account of a conversation between the defendant and his Japanese woman, who refused to take his laundry, because he had not paid her all he owed. Mrs. Wharton acted as a kind of interpreter between the two, and Johnson appeared to become very angry with her.

Prosser asked Mrs. Wharton to describe the clothes which Johnson wore on the day of the tragedy. She said he wore a black pair of trousers, a black coat and a woolen shirt. Prosser showed her a blood-stained shirt.

"That is the shirt," she said.

"What shirt?" asked Prosser.

"Johnson's shirt."

"Is that the shirt he had on on January 3, 1906?"

"Yes."

"Are these the stains on the sleeves, which you referred to as the red dirt stains?"

"Yes."

The shirt was then offered in evidence and the prosecution announced that it had ended its examination of Mrs. Wharton. Harrison then began his cross-examination.

Harrison's first questions were concerning the growth of the canfield. The answer was pathetic, and such as could be expected from a mother.

"I have never been to that place since January 3," she said. "I can see the canfield from my windows—but go down there, never."

To Pass On Offer Of New Boat

The directors of the Merchants' Association met in executive session in the Young building at 3 o'clock this afternoon to discuss the proposition of the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company, exclusively reported in last Saturday's Bulletin, to build a new passenger steamship for the Honolulu run, a vessel 500 feet long, with a speed of 16 knots, to cost $1,350,000, to make the trip in five and a half days between San Francisco and this port and to accommodate between 200 and 300 saloon passengers.

G. W. Smith, president of the Merchants' Association, E. A. McInerney and Mark Robinson, while east on the refund delegation, called at the headquarters of the A. H. S. S. Co. in New York and received from the company, as the result of the consultation, a detailed tentative proposition.

This proposition will probably be endorsed by the Merchants Association directors today.

ONE CHANGE IN POSITION OF CONTESTANTS

The most remarkable feature about the automobile contest vote this week is the regularity with which each of the contestants has advanced. Jack McVeigh has jumped from fifteen place to thirteenth, but otherwise there is not a single relative change among those above the thousand mark, though Miss Lucy Kaukau of Lahaina has joined the big-figure people.

That doesn't mean, however, that no votes have been cast. Admiral Beckley has plunked in a neat fifty thousand and he now sets a new mark in the two hundred thousand list. He is letting the Company D boys of Hilo know that they will have to go some to keep up with the man who comes in with the Kilauea every week.

Company D has not been what could be called slow. Over thirty thousand votes were deposited to the credit of the defenders of Hilo and a duplicate of this amount will land them in the two hundred thousand class, assuming that they expect to get there. They do, and more.

Conference Fails And Strike Threatens

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 29.—The joint conference of the coal miners and operators has adjourned sine die without arriving at any agreement. A strike is impending.

The failure of the strike conference at Indianapolis indicates that one of the greatest strikes the United States has ever known will be in full swing next month. It will be more far reaching than the last great coal strike because the labor element have succeeded in consolidating all the coal workers of the country and are said to have amassed a strike fund of over $3,000,000. The strike will be under the leadership of John Mitchell and will include the anthracite workers as well as the soft coal miners. Every miner of the country is expected to go out, consequently after the present surplus supply is consumed there will be nothing to keep the fires going in the thousand and one industries where coal is used. President Roosevelt, who was the leading factor in bringing the previous coal strike to a close has done his utmost to bring about an understanding, but thus far without result.

TO CONTROL OUTBREAK.

ST. PETERSBURG, Russia, March 29.—A special commission with de Witte, president has been created to have control for the public with the troops in handling any outbreak.

WIFE HAD CYANIDE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 29.—Evidence has been secured, showing that Mrs. McVicar, wife of the man whose body was found in a trunk at Stockton, purchased cyanide of potassium. This may have a bearing on the case of Mrs. Emma Ledout, who is charged with the murder of McVicar.

CAR MEN TO STRIKE.

OAKLAND, Cal., March 29.—The street railway employees have voted to strike.

FEDERAL HOSPITAL AT GUAM.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 29.—A hospital for the treatment of gangrene will probably be erected at Guam, to accommodate 400 cases.

JAPANESE CHILD AT PUUNENE SHOT BY ACCIDENT

Waialuku, March 28.—Kinzo Sasada, a Japanese child of about five years of age, was on Saturday last accidentally shot by Ogawa, a camp cook, at Puunene. It appears from the evidence taken at the coroner's inquest that Ogawa was shooting at a cat on the camp ground, the bullet hit a rock and glanced and hit the child on the head, who at the time was standing about 300 feet away. Ogawa immediately after the accident surrendered himself to the police authorities and was later released on furnishing cash bail of one thousand dollars. On Monday morning when the matter was brought before Judge McKay, County Attorney Case declined to prosecute Ogawa, it appearing to his satisfaction that it was pure accident.

The coroner's jury, which heard the statement of the witnesses relative to the shooting, returned the following verdict: "We find the deceased was named Kinzo Sasada, was a native of Hawaii of Japanese parents the age of five years, that he came to his death on the 24th day of March, 1906, from an accidental gun shot wound from the hand of a Japanese, named Ogawa."

BIG BATTLE FOUGHT SCORE OF AFFIDAVITS

The battle of affidavits in the motion for a new trial of the defendant in the Brown vs. Spreckels case was opened up again before Judge De Bolt today. So far affidavits have been filed by W. A. Kinney, S. M. Ballou, Frank Atherton, Geo. E. Sabin, J. A. Magoon, J. Lightfoot, C. A. Brown and the twelve jurors who heard the case, making a total of nineteen.

Today Kinney and Ballou fought the admission of the affidavits of the twelve jurors, which were filed by Magoon, on the grounds that while a jurymen could testify as to any hearing on extraneous influence, he could not testify as to how far this operated on his mind in finding a verdict. Magoon on the other side contended that the affidavit of Frank Atherton, which was filed by Kinney, should not have been admitted, as the testimony of a juror could not be used to impeach his verdict.

The Court finally allowed the affidavits to remain. The Kinney faction preparing to file a fresh bunch of affidavits, while the Magoon side threaten to object to having filed.

DENY LOW IS OUT AND ROSS IS IN

There is an insistent report about town that J. A. Low is out as manager of the Honolulu plantation and that Geo. Ross, who came down in the Korea with President Buck of the corporation, is to succeed him.

The plantation agents, Wm. G. Irwin & Co., through W. M. Giffard, say there is nothing of fact in the report. Mr. Buck last evening, according to the morning paper, denied that there was to be any change.

Mrs. Wharton Tells With Tears How She Found Son's Remains

PATHETIC SCENE IN JOHNSON MURDER TRIAL

"My son Simeon is lost. God help me! God help me!"

With these words poor little Mrs. Wharton broke down completely on the witness-stand this forenoon and sobbed aloud as the horror and grief of her little son came back to her vividly at the sight of Johnson, his murderer, who sat facing her only a few feet away. She had kept up bravely through the ordeal of giving her testimony, which may lead the slayer to the gallows; but when her narrative approached the climax of the horror, the unfortunate mother's nerve failed her, and she could not restrain the terrible agony she felt, as the horrible memories came back to her.

Throughout the hearing of Mrs. Johnson's testimony the attorneys on both sides showed the utmost consideration, especially T. M. Harrison, who refrained from making the many technical objections, which are generally used. But in spite of all that, the attorneys felt for the poor woman, they had to make her go through the ordeal of describing the terrible fate of her first-born.

After her first break-down Mrs. Wharton composed herself and went bravely ahead with her narrative, but when the Attorney General handed her the blood-stained little garments of her child, her grief again broke down all her self-restraint, and she sobbed aloud in her anguish.
